

AGREEMENT TO PURSUE RECONCILIATION

Having decided to try to restore our marriage to health,

- We each commit to an all-out effort over the next six months, with divorce off the table for this period of time.
- We know that this effort will mean working on ourselves individually and as a couple.
- We will try to bring our best selves to this effort, and to treat each other with respect and dignity even when we are upset with each other.
- We promise to not bring up the threat of divorce out of anger or to get the other to go along with something we want.
- We will only confide in people who will support our work on reconciliation.
- If our relationship is not improving, we will raise a concern early rather than keeping silent and planning an exit.
- We will use the resources that can help us succeed, being as flexible as possible with our time and schedules.
